

The Sikh Review

A theological, educational and socio-cultural Monthly founded in 1953

Vol. 54:8

AUGUST 2006

No. : 632

SPECIAL ANNIVERSARY ISSUE CONTENTS

MEDITATION	Amritsar symbolises God's Glory	Shabad Gurbani
EDITORIAL	Compassion and Sensitivity towards all Living Beings is the essence of Spirituality	Dimpy Gurbinder Singh
SCRIPTURE	Guru Arjun sees Divine Light in Guru Nanak	Harnam Singh Shan
THEOLOGY	Perception of Guru Nanak's 'Japji'	Joginder Singh, IRS (Retd.)
PHILOSOPHY	The Five 'Khands' (Realms) of Japji	Baldev Singh (USA)
	Recognizing God's Will	Brig. Hardit Singh (Retd.)
	Superconsciousness: A Sikh Perspective	RK Janmeja Singh (USA)
MORAL TRADITION	Exploring Guru Arjun's Thought on Halemi Raj	Nirmal Singh (USA)
	Martyrdom as the Ultimate Sacrifice
	in the Sikh Ethos	Gurdarshan Singh Dhillon
HISTORIOGRAPHY	Ratan Singh Bhangu's Prachin Panth Prakash
	(Part V)	Prof. Gurtej Singh
DIASPORA	An Overview of Sikhs in United Kingdom	Onkar Singh
PERSPECTIVES	Chairs for Sikh Studies in America:	I.J. Singh &
	Problems and Solutions	Hakam Singh
ECONOMY	Agricultural Decline in Punjab
	Causes & Remedies	Inderjit Singh Jaijee
SOCIOLOGY	Alcohol, other drugs and the Young People (Part II)	Amarjit Singh
	The Institution of Marriage:
	Rights & Duties in Sikhism	Surjit Kaur (USA)
TRIBUTE	Portrait of a 'Kirti Gursikh':
	A Son's Homage to a Legend	Maj.Gen. Surjit Singh
VIEWPOINT	Stop Processions!	Khushwant Singh
YOUTH SECTION	Our Holy Places Across the Border	Brinderpal Singh Sokhi
POET'S CORNER	My Hands are Empty	Gurudass Singh & G. Kaur
READERS' FORUM	Letters to the Editor
DIARY	Synopsis of Notable Events
BOOKS	PUNJABI SAGA	Reviewed by:
	By Prakash Tandon	Althea Phillips