

What man has made of Man

*Principal S.S. Prince

* # 1312 Sector 18-C, Chandigarh. 160018.

*Fundamentalism, terrorism and fanaticism,
Have torn this world apart.
Love, affection and tolerance
Have no place in human heart!
Religion was once a uniting force.
But now it often breeds hate.
A tree of tyranny will grow,
Let us all watch and wait.*

*Man, the most superior creation of God,
Has assumed a mad and barbaric shape,
The innocents are daily butchered,
And there are cases of arson and rape.*

*The whole world is in grip of fear,
Bullets are ruthlessly showered,
Bombs explode, the cities burn,
Innocents are butchered.*

*The omnipresence of potent God,
Seems to have failed to deter the brutish clan.
Have I not reasons to lament
What man has made of man?*

*If wisdom does not quickly dawn
Upon the ravaging human brain,
The end of this world will loom.
No logic or reason would remain.*
