“Many a place I have seen but none like this”
The Golden Temple which I’ve too far an experience,
Aptly fits the Guru’s words for what it is
A soul elevating beauty par excellence.

Now it has become World’s Golden Heritage
Looking at it is fixing with God our time!
With Golden Temple comes our golden age
A global culture so spiritual sublime.

There is no use traveling in vacuumed space
Seeing many a dead moon makes us swoon,
At Amritsar the Golden Temple when we face
On earth with God’s love we find our honeymoon!

In worship of One Formless God it beckons
The world’s only cosmic prayer house all welcomes,
And the children of God with thrills soon reckon
As the entrancing Gurbani songs drives home.
The Golden Temple symbolize soul’s unity
Its eternal songs day and night sweet pleads,
And awaking with its stunning spiritual beauty
Whose community kitchen one and all feeds.

Such’s the Golden Temple’s gravity for a pull
O Nanak! What God praises you’ve put in its womb?
That sure leaves all dumb with joy so wonderful
At Agra the lily sad Taj is only a tomb!
