

The Sikh Review

A theological, educational and socio-cultural Monthly founded in 1953

Vol. 53:10

OCTOBER 2005

No. : 622

MEDITATION

Human Suffering & Divine Will

Shabad Gurbani

EDITORIAL

The Canary in the Coal Mine

I.J. Singh

Parliamentary Anti-climax after 21 years

Dimpy Gurvinder

Singh

PHILOSOPHY Guru Nanak's Vision: Dharti, Dharma & Dhuri Nirmal Singh

1984 - THE HOLOCAUST

CHRONICLE The Bloodied Landscape Patwant Singh

The Assassination and the Massacre Pranay Gupte

PERSPECTIVES Balm of "Public Apology" in Societal Conflict Mohinder Singh, IAS (Retd)

HUMAN RIGHTS The 'Massacre' of 1984 and Justice Nanavati The Late Justice

Report - Unanswered Questions Ranjit Singh Narula

Such Forgetfulness! A.G. Noorani

RETROSPECT The 1984 Cover-up Seema Mustafa

1984: Assassination & The Massacre of Sikhs PC Alexander

1984: Massacre of Sikhs - some case histories Late Justice SM Sikri & ors.

COMMISSIONS GALORE/COMMENT ABOUNDING

RECOLLECTION A look back in Anger:

Nanavati Report - A Post-mortem Julio Ribeiro

REFLECTION Forgetting 1984 killings would be immoral Vir Sanghavi

Prevention of Future Holocausts Prof. Sajjan Singh Bajwa

COMMENTARY Ashes to Ashes Ravindra Kumar

Politics of shame Priya Sahgal & Ramesh Vinayak

REQUIEM On behalf of Govt., I bow my head in shame Dr. Manmohan Singh

COMMENT The Nanavati Report is utter garbage Khushwant Singh

Carnage Condoned editorial in The Statesman

Sorry, PM, We need more than an apology Editorial in Times of India

MEMBERS' FORUM Letters to the Editor

BOOKS

INNER DYNAMICS OF GURU GRANTH SAHIB

Reviewed by:

By Dr. S.P. Singh S.S.

KATHA-KAHANI (An Autobiography) S.S.

By Man Singh Nirankari

THE ARMCHAIR SIKH Dr. H.S. Virk

By Gajindar Singh