

The Sikh Review

A theological, educational and socio-cultural Monthly founded in 1953

Vol. 54:9

SEPTEMBER 2006

No. : 633

MEDITATION

Love and cherish God with every breath

Shabad Gurbani

EDITORIAL

Born to serve:

Remembering Bhagat Puran Singh Ji

NAAMOLOGY Naam in Sikhism & 'Mahapurushiasism' Dr. Ratul Chandra Borah

PHILOSOPHY Munn or Mind as in Guru Granth Sahib Ravinder Kaur

Creation of the Universe as expounded

in Guru Nanak Bani (Part I) Dr. D.P. Singh

SCRIPTURE The Many Splendoured Guru Granth Sahib Nandini Joshi

MORAL TRADITION From Sangat to Sovereignty Dr. Sukhdial Singh

Sikhism has no place for Divisive Tribalism Brig. Tarlochan Singh

PERSPECTIVES Remnants of Sikhi in Myanmar (Burma) Prof. Hardev Singh Virk

The Story of the original Portrait of

Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji Gurpreet Singh Hansra

Seva by Nirmla Ashrams Tarlochan Singh, MP

RETROSPECT Going Down the Memory Lane:

Recalling Invasion of Kashmir: Oct. 1947 Brig. Dalip Singh Sidhu

CURRENT AFFAIRS Kashmir's Sikhs on Shaky Ground? Kavita Suri

The Political Scenario in Punjab &

the coming elections Dr. G. S. Dhillon

DYNAMICS Naam, Daan, Isnaan: Inspiration from

Warren Buffet's Philanthropy Bhupinder Singh

The 'Sikh Day' Celebration at

Herndon Senior Center Dr. Surjit Kaur (USA)

TECHNOLOGY WWW.Srigranth.org: The High-Tech treasure of

SGGS waiting to be discovered Prof. D. S. Chahal (Canada)

YOUTH SECTION Who are Sikhs? A Voice from Australia Manvir Singh Khalsa

POET'S CORNER I and i Payal Walia

READERS' FORUM Letters to the Editor

DIARY Synopsis of Notable Events

BOOKS

ME JUDICE - AN MISCELLANY

Reviewed by:

By Late Sirdar Kapur Singh, Ed. by Baldev Singh S.S.

THE WORLD ACCORDING TO SIKHI

By I.J. Singh S.S